JOINT RESOLUTION relating to the preservation and publication of portions of the early state and provincial records and other state papers of New Hampshire.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court convened:

That his excellency the governor be hereby authorized and empowered, with the advice and consent of the council, to employ some suitable person—and fix his compensation, to be paid out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated—to collect, arrange, transcribe, and superintend the publication of such portions of the early state and provincial records and other state papers of New Hampshire as the governor may deem proper; and that eight hundred copies of each volume of the same be printed by the state printer, and distributed as follows: namely, one copy to each city and town in the state, one copy to such of the public libraries in the state as the governor may designate, fifty copies to the New Hampshire Historical Society, and the remainder placed in the custody of the state librarian, who is hereby authorized to exchange the same for similar publications by other states.

Approved August 4, 1881.

In accordance with the foregoing resolution, the governor, with advice of the council, on the 12th day of October, 1881, appointed and commissioned ISAAC W. HAMMOND as "Editor and Compiler of State Papers."

EDITOR'S PREFACE.

This volume contains the rolls of the soldiers who served in the Revolutionary War from this state from the beginning of that memorable struggle to May, 1777, so far as the same are in the possession of the state, or could be procured elsewhere by the editor. They will be of great value to town historians, biographers, genealogists, and others who are engaged in tracing the history of their ancestors with a purpose to place the same in compact and permanent form.

It is to be regretted that some of the early rolls have not been found. If they come to light later, they will be published in a subsequent volume.

The rolls herein published do not exhibit the entire service rendered by some of the men, as some of the regiments were incorporated into the regular "Continental Army," and thereafter paid by continental paymasters; consequently some of the pay-rolls are in the possession of the United States government, and are held as vouchers. The muster and bounty rolls and regimental returns will, however, give the names once each, at least, of nearly all who served subsequent to January, 1776; and when these rolls, returns, and other documents are all published, the residences of most of the men can be ascertained, with the help of a complete index, which has been carefully compiled.

The large number of letters of inquiry from persons within and without the state, which have been received by the editor since he commenced the compilation of these rolls, are abundant evidence of a growing public interest in the history of our state, and fully sustain the action of the governor and council in authorizing their publication under the resolution of the legislature of 1881.

The editor has been encouraged and sustained in his labor by the uniform kindness and favor of His Excellency Samuel W. Hale, and the honorable council; and many other gentlemen from various parts of the state, who have visited him, have shown a deep interest in the work, and spoken words of counsel and encouragement which have been very helpful.

The publication of the second volume of rolls has been commenced, and the work will issue in due time (D. V.).

HAMMOND.

STATE OF NEW HAMPSHIRE.

ROLLS OF THE MEN WHO WERE ENGAGED IN THE FRENCH AND REVOLUTIONARY WARS.

[The following were copied from manuscript volumes in the office of the adjutant-general, the largest portion of which are Revolutionary War Rolls. A large part of the rolls of the various Indian and French wars was published in the adjutant-general's report in 1866; a few, which have come to light since that volume issued, are inserted in this. The figures in brackets at the beginning of each document refer to the manuscript volume and page where the originals may be found.]

[An expedition was sent from England, which arrived in Boston July 1, 1710, to assist in capturing Port Royal in Nova Scotia. The provinces of New Hampshire, Massachusetts, Connecticut, and Rhode Island raised their respective quotas of troops, provisions, etc., and the fleet sailed from Nantasket September 18, arriving at Port Royal on the 24th; an immediate attack was made, which resulted in the capture of the fort on the 5th of October. After its capture the place was named Annapolis Royal, in honor of Queen Anne; and the following companies left to hold the fort. The first is copied entire, and abstracts are made giving the important parts of the others.—Ed.]

* Sir Charles Hobby was a son of William Hobby, of Boston. He was knighted for brave conduct at Jamaica, on the occasion of an earthquake, in 1692. He aspired to the position of governor, and went to England to press his claim, but Joseph Dudley was appointed instead. He died in 1715, insolvent.—Ed.

[1–32 to 72]

[Men enlisted by Capt. Hercules Mooney in April, 1758. The following is taken from the original enlistment papers, on printed blanks, one for each man, one of which is copied entire, and the name, birthplace, and age of the soldier abstracted from the others. Ed.]

No. 1. I William Gibbs born in Charlestown in the Massachusetts Bay aged 58 Years; by Trade Butcher do acknowledge to have voluntarily inlisted myself as a private Soldier to serve His Majesty King GEORGE the Second, in a Regiment of Foot now raising in His Majesty's Province of New Hampshire, for the reduction of Canada, under such Regimental Officers as the Governor of said Province shall appoint, and to be discharged the first day of November next, unless the Forces raised for the intended Expedition in His Majesty's other Governments in New England, should be longer detain'd.

Ap[l] 6, 1758 Will[m] his mark × Gibbs

THESE are to Certify that William Gibbs came before me, One of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the Province of New Hampshire, and acknowledged to have voluntarily inlisted himself to serve His Majesty King GEORGE the Second in the abovesaid Regiment; he also acknowledged he had heard the seventh and tenth Articles of War read unto him against Mutiny and Desertion, and took the Oath of Fidelity mention'd in the Articles of War

THE STATE OF NEW HAMPSHIRE.

REVOLUTIONARY WAR ROLLS.

INTRODUCTION BY THE EDITOR.

The first revolutionary act of the people of New Hampshire was the capture without bloodshed of Fort William and Mary, at New Castle, and the removal therefrom of about one hundred barrels of gunpowder, fifteen cannon, and sixty stand of fire-arms. This was accomplished on the fourteenth and fifteenth days of December, 1774, by a company of men led by John Langdon and John Sullivan, and was the first important seizure of munitions of war made by the revolutionary patriots in any of the colonies. The powder was secreted under Durham meeting-house, and some of it was conveyed to Medford, Mass., and used at the battle of Bunker Hill in June following. The prime cause of this seizure was the reception in Portsmouth of a copy of an order passed by the king in council, prohibiting the exportation to America of military stores of any kind, and the movement was precipitated by information received by way of Paul Revere's express, from Boston, that the British war frigate Scarborough was to be sent to New Castle to take possession of the port. Prior to this, in June and September of the same year, the citizens of Portsmouth and vicinity had forced the reshipment and removal out of the province of two cargoes of tea, accomplishing their purpose without bloodshed, and with but little tumult; but the firm and determined attitude of the people convinced the governor and consignee that any resistance on their part would be ineffectual, and probably result in the destruction of the tea.

From December, 1774, to April following, the people were counselling among themselves, calmly deliberating upon the exigencies of the times, and energetically preparing for the crisis which they felt must come. The sentiment which pervaded the community is plainly shown by the address of the convention of delegates, which convened at Exeter January 25, 1775, in which they counselled the people to maintain peace, harmony, and union among themselves, to practise economy, to promote manufactures, avoid law-suits, improve themselves in such military arts as would best fit them for real action in an engagement, and to imitate their forefathers by appealing to the Divine Being to espouse their righteous cause, secure their liberties, and "fix them on a firm and lasting basis."

Companies were formed and drilled, and when, on the 19th day of April, 1775, the crisis came, the men of New Hampshire dropped their implements of industry, seized whatever they could of implements of warfare, and by companies, by tens, by fives, and by twos hurried to the front. The same spirit pervaded the women, many of whom spent the nights of the 19th and 20th in making clothes, baking bread, and moulding bullets for their husbands and sons, bidding them good-bye at daylight, with a God-speed upon their tremulous lips, and while the men went forth to repel the invading army, the women tilled the soil, spun the yarn, and wove the cloth that clothed the family. The number of men who went from this state to Cambridge at that time is unknown; many were not organized in companies, some returned after being absent from one to two weeks, and many enlisted for eight months, forming the nucleus for the regiments of Stark and Reed, which did admirable service at Bunker Hill.

The following are all the rolls which the editor has been able to find of the men who went to Cambridge "on the alarm of the battle of Lexington."

Judge Worcester states that fifty-three of the above enlisted at Cambridge for eight months, mostly in Captain Dow's company, which was mustered into the Massachusetts regiment commanded by Colonel William Prescott, of Pepperell, and were at the battle of Bunker Hill. Thomas Colburn and Ebenezer Youngman enlisted in the company of Captain Moor, of Groton, Mass., and were both killed at Bunker Hill.

Seventeen returned in four days, and thirty-seven were paid for seventeen days. Of the latter, sixteen enlisted in Capt. Philip Thomas's Co. for eight months.

A company, consisting of 1 Lieutenant, 1 Ensign, 4 Sergeants, 4 Corporals, and 52 Privates, marched from Swanzey at daylight on the morning of April 21, under the command of Lieut. Col. Joseph Hammond. (Vol. XIII, p. 526.) Twenty-two of them enlisted at Cambridge for eight months, and the remainder returned after an absence of fifteen days. No roll of them is known to be in existence. From the histories of the respective towns mentioned we cull the following items:

Keene	sent 30	men	commanded	by	Isaac Wyman.
Concord	" 36	"	"	"	Abiel Chandler.
Derryfield	" 34	"	"	"	————
Gilmanton	" 12	"	"	"	Ebenezer Eastman

About 100 men marched from Nottingham and vicinity; and in fact all the towns in the southern portion of this state sent more or less men according to their population, and it is to be regretted that complete rolls are not to be found.

The third "Provincial Congress" met in Exeter April 21, 1775, and on that day appointed Colonel Nathaniel Folsom, of Exeter, "to take the chief command of the Troops who have gone or may go from this Government to assist our suffering Brethren in the Province of the Massachusetts Bay."

On the 26th they appointed Col. Nathaniel Folsom, Col. Josiah Bartlett, and Maj. Samuel Hobart, a committee to go to Massachusetts, and consult with the government of that province concerning ways and means of defence. This committee advised the raising and organizing of a regiment of men at once, and the several officers then in command of the New Hampshire men in the vicinity of Medford convened and chose field officers, who proceeded to raise a regiment, and had 584 men, exclusive of drummers and fifers, in camp, on the 18th of May. (Col. Stark's Letter, Vol. VII, p. 474.)

Some New Hampshire men had enlisted in Massachusetts regiments, and the congress at Exeter, on the 2d day of May, voted "not to discourage persons, being inhabitants of this Province, from Enlisting in the Massachusetts service for the present Emergency." May 23, Nathaniel Folsom was again appointed to the general command of the N. H. forces, and vigorous measures were inaugurated to raise and equip the 2000 men which they had voted the day before to raise and organize into three regiments.

May 24, in accordance with the recommendation of the committee of safety, the provincial congress appointed Enoch Poor, of Exeter, Colonel, John McDuffee, of Rochester, Lt. Col., and Joseph Cilley, of Nottingham, Major, and empowered the committee of safety to issue orders for enlisting a regiment.

June 1, the same congress appointed "James Reed Esqr to be Coll^o. of a regiment," Israel Gilman, of New Market, Lt. Colonel, and Nathan Hale, of Rindge, Major, of the same regiment, and authorized the committee of safety to issue enlisting orders to ten men to enlist each a company of 62 men, including officers.

June 3 they appointed John Stark, who had been acting under a commission from Massachusetts, to "be the Col^o of the first Regim^t," Isaac Wyman, of Keene, to be lieutenant-colonel, and Andrew McClary, of Epsom, major, and voted "that Ten Companys of 62 men each, of the Regiment now at Medford in the Province of Mass^ts be the first or oldest Regiment." This arrangement was made as a compromise with Stark, who desired the position occupied by Gen. Folsom. Two companies of Stark's regiment were turned over to Reed, whose regiment was "fitted up" (officered) prior to June 8. (Reed's letter, Vol. VII, p. 508.) The regiments of Stark and Reed were at Medford, Mass., while that commanded by Poor remained in New Hampshire to guard against any attempt of the enemy to land forces on our coast. June 12, Col. Reed received the following order:

"Head Quarters June the 12, 1775. General Orders—That Coll. Reed quarter his Regiment in the Houses near Charlestown neck and keep all necessary Guards between his Barracks and the Ferrey and on Bunkers Hill—Signed J. Ward Sectary Copy for James Reed"

In obedience thereto Col. Reed marched his regiment to Charlestown Neck on the 13th of June, and posted a guard consisting of "1 Capt, 2 Subalterns [lieutenants], 4 Serjeants 4 Corporals and 40 privetts." (Col. Reed's letter.) On the next day he made a return of his regiment as follows:

On the 15th, Col. Reed issued the following orders:

* The men entered in this column are the 51 referred to by Col. Reed as the guard which he posted between his barracks and the ferry and on Bunker Hill. The columns in the original, headed "Drummers," "Fifers," "Privates," and "Confined," under "Sick absent Unfit & on Command," having no entries, are omitted in the foregoing table.

"Charlestown June the 15th, 1775.

James Reed Coll."

On the 16th of June Gen. Ward placed three Massachusetts regiments and a company of about 120 Connecticut men, commanded by Capt. Knowlton, under the command of Col. William Prescott, of Pepperell, with orders to march to Bunker Hill and erect such fortifications as he and Col. Gridley, an experienced engineer, might deem best adapted for its defence. On their arrival upon the ground a consultation of the officers was held, and it was decided to erect the redoubt on that part of the eminence known locally as Breed's Hill. Of the "about 1000 men" who marched under Prescott and erected the fortification, 110 or more were New Hampshire men, who had enlisted in Col. Prescott's regiment, from the following towns: Hollis, one whole company of 59 men, under Capt. Reuben Dow; Merrimack, 11; Londonderry, 11; Raby (now Brookline), 7: others from Amherst, Mason, New Ipswich, etc. (Colonel Prescott's rolls.)

On the following day, June 17, 1775, occurred the memorable "Battle of Bunker Hill," a history of which the editor does not propose to give here, but simply to present some facts relative to the number of New Hampshire men engaged in it, and the service by them performed. The editor has used considerable time in the examination of all manuscript documents and printed works relating to the subject, and by the information thus obtained believes the following statements are substantially correct.

On the morning of the battle Gen. Ward directed Col. Stark, of the First New Hampshire Regiment, to send 200 men, properly officered, to the assistance of Col. Prescott, which order he "readily obeyed," and despatched the men under the command of Lieut. Col. Isaac Wyman, of Keene. The remainder of Stark's and the whole of Col. Reed's regiment were moved to the front in the afternoon, in obedience to orders from Gen. Ward. Stark says, "And about 2 o'clock in the afternoon express orders came for the whole of my regiment to proceed to Charlestown, to oppose the enemy who were landing on Charlestown Point." He marched his men at once; and on their arrival at Charlestown Neck they were joined by the regiment of New Hampshire men under the command of Col. James Reed, of Fitzwilliam. In consequence of a raking fire across the Neck from the British vessels and floating batteries in Charles river, two regiments, which had been ordered to Prescott's support, had halted. Maj. McClary went forward and said to the commanders, that if they were not intending to move on, he wished them to open ranks and let our regiments pass, which they immediately did; and Stark and Reed marched their men deliberately to the hill. (E. H. Derby.) The British troops had landed on Moulton's Point, probably with the intention of moving to the left of the redoubt and getting in Prescott's rear, which had they succeeded in doing would have rendered their conquest comparatively easy. Col. Stark comprehended the situation at once, and, moving his men to the left of the redoubt, took up a position behind a rail fence.

Some historians state that Stark's regiment extended to Mystic river, and that the men built a stone barricade on the beach. If that was the fact, Reed's regiment, which was on the same line, must have been posted on the right of Stark's, and on the left of Capt. Knowlton's company of Connecticut men, thus forming a nearly continuous line from the redoubt to the river. This line, which was the key to the position, was attacked by the British troops under the command of Gen. Howe in person, a simultaneous attack being made upon the redoubt. Twice they were driven back with great slaughter. The New Hampshire men held their position until the redoubt was taken by the enemy, and Prescott's handful of brave men were on the retreat, then retiring in good order, unconquered, over Bunker Hill to Charlestown Neck.

The historian Bancroft says, "The little handful of brave men [Prescott's] would have been effectually cut off but for the unfaltering courage of the provincials at the rail fence and on the bank of the Mystic. They had repulsed the enemy twice, and now held them in check until the main body had left the hill. Not till then did the Connecticut companies under Knowlton, and the New Hampshire soldiers under Stark, quit the station which they had so nobly defended." Other historians state that the New Hampshire men at the rail fence "maintained their ground with firmness and intrepidity, and successfully resisted every attempt to turn their flank," and saved the men who were retreating from the redoubt from being cut off.

Drake says, "The weight of the first and second attacks was borne by the defenders of the rail fence, where Gen. Howe in person attacked, with the very flower of his army, supported by artillery." "The retreat of this little handful of brave men [under Col. Prescott] would have been effectually cut off had it not happened that the flanking party of the enemy, which was to have come up on the back of the redoubt, was checked by a party of provincials [Stark's, Reed's, and Knowlton's men], who fought with the utmost bravery, and kept them from advancing farther than the beach." (Mass. Com. of Safety—account of the battle.)

The foregoing statements by Massachusetts historians as to the bravery and coolness of the New Hampshire men, and the soldierly skill of their officers, were freely made and well deserved. Had the men under Prescott, Stark, Reed, and Knowlton been armed with bayonets, and fully supplied with ammunition, they could and would have held their position against the entire force under General Howe.

As to the number of men engaged on the American side, historians differ materially Bancroft states that at the time the British landed "Prescott had remaining with him but seven to eight hundred men," and that "his flanks were unprotected." E. H. Derby thinks that this was a high estimate, and fixes the entire force of Prescott, including his flanking parties, at 600 men when the reënforcements under Stark and Reed reached the field. Mr. Derby says, "If we count in these troops [the 600], and all those who arrived before the final retreat, the number who were engaged in the battle, according to the best evidence to which I have access, was 1985." Other historians place the number variously from 2000 to 2500. I think the latter must include those who went no further than Charlestown Neck, and might have been under fire from the ships, and have lost some men, but really took no part in the action.

The number of men from New Hampshire actually engaged in the battle, according to the best evidence the editor has been able to obtain, was 1230, under command as follows: According to the payrolls of the ten companies in Stark's regiment which were with him that day, the number of officers and privates belonging to those companies who entered the service prior to June 17 was 616.

In a letter to the Committee of Safety, dated June 23, 1775, Gen. Folsom stated that Col. Stark's regiment still consisted of thirteen companies; but there is no evidence to show that he had any more with him in the battle than the ten mentioned above. It is stated by historians that there were three New Hampshire companies under the command of Col. Paul Dudley Sargent, of Amherst, which were sent forward too late for service, although Col. Sargent had during the day requested permission to join Stark and Reed. These may have been the other three of Stark's.

The following account of the killed and wounded is taken principally from an article prepared by Hon Geo. W. Nesmith, who spent considerable time in research.

The foregoing is a record of which New Hampshire has reason to be proud. It is the result of much research, taking considerable time of the editor, and he believes that it is substantially correct.

His excuse for this lengthy preliminary chapter is his belief that many of the facts herein presented are not known to the majority of our citizens, and that they ought to be placed where they will be accessible to them all, so that they may the more fully understand the important service performed by the men from New Hampshire in that memorable struggle. In order to fully appreciate those services, it must be borne in mind that the forces of Stark and Reed were undisciplined, armed with guns of different calibers, with but few bayonets, without cartridges, and with but little ammunition of any kind,—notwithstanding which they repulsed two desperate attacks made by the flower of the regular British army, led by Gen. Howe in person, and bravely held their position until their small stock of ammunition had become exhausted, the force in the redoubt had retreated, and their position rendered untenable.

Honor to whom honor is due.

[Capt. Marcy was of Walpole, Lieut. Farwell of Charlestown, and Taggart of Peterborough. Men mostly from Charlestown, Acworth, Cornish, etc.—Ed.]

[COLONEL ENOCH POOR'S REGIMENT, 1775.]

[On the 24th day of May, 1775, the "Fourth Provincial Congress" of New Hampshire appointed Enoch Poor, of Exeter, colonel, John McDuffee, of Rochester, lieutenant-colonel, and Joseph Cilley, of Nottingham, major, of a regiment of troops to be raised and known as the second New Hampshire regiment; and authorized the committee of safety to issue orders for enlisting the men. Accordingly on the same day the committee issued orders to the following persons to enlist each a company of sixty-two able-bodied effective men, viz.,— Winborn Adams, Durham.

Winthrop Rowe, Kensington.
Henry Elkins, Hampton.
Samuel Gilman, New Market.
Philip Tilton, Kingston.
Benjamin Titcomb, Dover.
Jonathan Wentworth, Somersworth.
Jeremiah Clough, Canterbury.
James Norris, Epping.
Zaccheus Clough, Poplin.

The following are all that can be found of the muster-rolls of this regiment. They are of especial value as giving the residence, age, and occupation of the men.—Ed.]

Captain Shortridge's orders were dated y^{e}. 14th of June 1775 Commissions were dated ye 18th June

[1-126] [Committee of Safety to Gen. Folsom.]

In committee of Safety at Exeter the 17th of June 1775

To General Follsom—

Sr You are required to order Two of the Company's in Coll^{o} Poors Regiment, viz—Capt. Adam's and Capt Tiltons to march by the middle of next Week to Join the army at or near Cambridge in the Massachusetts Bay there to receive further orders—

[Mathew Thornton, Chairman.]

[It will be seen that the foregoing order, from the original of which somebody has cut the signature, was issued on the day of the battle of Bunker Hill. On the 18th the record of the committee of safety has the following entry.

"June 18th. Upon receiving the news of the engagement at Charlestown, directed Col. Poor to order all the companies in his regiment, except Capt. Elkins' to March immediately to Cambridge." ED.]

[COLONEL TIMOTHY BEDEL'S REGIMENT, 1775.]

[On the twenty-sixth day of May, 1775, the provincial congress, sitting at Exeter, "Voted, That a Company not exceeding 60 men in the Northwesterly parts of this Colony be forthwith enlisted, to be ready to act as occasion may require." The company was raised by Timothy Bedel, and called the first company of rangers, Timothy Bedel of Bath, captain, Abraham Palmer of Orford, 1st lieutenant, Charles Nelson of Lyme, ensign or 2d lieutenant. Their commissions were issued July 7, and dated June 23, the day they were mustered. The following is a roll of the men as mustered July 29, 1775. —Ed.]

NEW HAMPSHIRE TROOPS IN THE QUEBEC EXPEDITION.

NOTE BY THE EDITOR.

In August, 1775, General Washington conceived the idea of sending a force to attempt the capture of Quebec. Their route was to be up the Kennebec river, thence through the forests of Maine and Canada to the Chaudiere river, and thence down that stream to its junction with the St. Lawrence, about four miles above Quebec.

The detachment was composed of men enlisted for that duty from the troops in the vicinity of Boston, and was placed under the command of Col. Benedict Arnold, with Lieut. Col. Roger Enos as second in command. They were relieved from duty in the several organizations to which they formerly belonged, and ordered to Cambridge common on the 8th and 9th of September, where they were organized into two battalions of about eleven hundred men, and remained until the evening of the 13th, when they marched to Medford. They sailed from Newburyport on the 19th, and reached the Kennebec on the day following, landing about three miles below Fort Western, which was on the site of the present city of Augusta. From that place the detachment marched in four divisions, with rations for forty-five days. About the 27th of October, Lieut. Col. Enos, with three companies, became discouraged, and returned to Cambridge. The remainder of the force pushed on through a pathless forest, wading through swollen streams of ice-cold water, and almost impenetrable swamps. Their provisions were exhausted long before reaching the Canadian settlements, their clothes became so dilapidated as to furnish but little protection against the rigor of a Canadian winter, and many were barefoot for days before they reached Quebec on the 8th of November. The sufferings of this band of heroes cannot be expressed, and could have been endured only by a class of men inured to hardship and exposure, and fired with a patriotism which prompts its possessors to win the victory or perish in the attempt. In this detachment were at least eighty-eight New Hampshire men, as shown by the following rolls. New Hampshire had also at the same time three companies, numbering 195 men, in the service in Canada under Col. Timothy Bedel, which did good service at St. John and elsewhere; thirty-three companies, containing 1,264 men, under Col. Wingate, guarding our sea-coast; and at least three regiments, of ten companies each, in Gen. Washington's army in Massachusetts. Notwithstanding this the little state raised on short notice and sent thirty-one companies, containing 1895 men, to Massachusetts, in December, to take the place of some Connecticut troops who were not patriotic enough to remain in the service at that critical time, amounting in all to nearly 5,000 men in the army from this state in December, 1775.

ROLLS OF THE TROOPS ENGAGED IN THE DEFENCE OF PISCATAQUA HARBOR, 1775.

[The fourth provincial congress voted, on the first day of September, 1775, to raise four regiments of minute men by the enlistment of men from the several regiments of militia. The men were to be enlisted for four months, and then others were to take their places. Col. Joshua Wingate, of Stratham, was appointed to take command of the first regiment, with the rank of colonel; Jonathan Burnham, lieutenant colonel; James Hackett and George Gains, majors. The troops were stationed in Portsmouth, New Castle, Kittery, and vicinity, to defend the harbor from any attack that might be made upon it by the enemy from the seaward.

The following are the rolls of the several companies as mustered November 5, giving their several stations:—Ed.]

This Book contains a true Return so far as has come to my Knowledge, of the Officers & Privates belonging to the different Departments specify'd therein—return'd to me at Seavey's Island Novr 6th 1775—

Joshua Wingate Cor^{ll}—

[On the 30th of November, 1775, Gen. John Sullivan, who was in command of the troops on Winter Hill, near Boston, wrote a letter to the New Hampshire Committee of Safety, from which I extract the following: "I have by command of General Washington to inform you. That the Connecticut forces (Deaf to the entreaties of their own as well as all other officers & regardless of the contempt with which their own Government threatens to treat them on their return) have absolutely refused to tarry till the first day of January, but will quit the lines on the 6th of Decemb^{r}. They have deceived us & their officers by pretending there would be no difficulty with them till they have got so near the close of their term; & now to their Eternal Infamy demand a bounty to induce them to tarry only the three weeks. This is such an Insult to every American that we are determined to release them at the expiration of their term at all hazards & find ourselves obliged immediately to supply their places with Troops from New Hampshire & Massachusetts Bay." The number asked for from New Hampshire was thirty-one companies, of sixty-four men each, including officers, and they were to serve until January 15, 1776, if required. The Committee of Safety met Dec. 2, and gave orders for enlisting the men ; and the business was prosecuted with the usual impulsive and patriotic vigor of the New Hampshire men of that time. The thirty-one companies were raised and forwarded in due time, and were highly complimented by General Washington. In a letter to Committee of Safety, dated Dec. 8, 1775, General Sullivan says,—" General Washington and all the other officers are extremely pleased & bestow the highest enconiums on you and your troops, freely acknowledging that New Hampshire Forces for bravery & resolution far surpass the other Colonies & that no Province discovers so much zeal in the common cause." There are no rolls of these companies in the state-house, and the editor has been able to find but one elsewhere, that of the second company, which will follow Col. Burnham's return. The troops were mustered by Col. Jonathan Burnham, and the following return was made to the Committee of Safety of New Hampshire.—Ed.]

Thomas Hibbard Adjt in Colo Bedel's Regt—

Isle aux Noix June 24th 1776. This is to Certify that all the men mustered at Montreal were all equipt with arms, and received their bounty one months advance pay and a Blanket Each. The reason of this certificate is that the muster rolls with other papers during Colo Bedels absence were left with me at the Cedars, and during the time of the seige to save them from falling into the Enemies hands I deposited them said papers with some of my own behind the ceiling of the room I lived in, but the Fort being taken I never had any oppertunity to get them, being within the Enemies lines, so imagine they remain there to this day, all which I declare upon honour.—

[The fact that these men were reported as above, is not conclusive evidence that they were in all cases actually deserters. I have found some cases where men were reported as deserters at the expiration of their furloughs, who subsequently returned, and did years of good service. Chimney Point was near Crown Point, on Lake Champlain.—Ed.]

[COLONEL ISAAC WYMAN'S REGIMENT, JULY, 1776.]

[The Continental Congress, in June, 1776, made a requisition for a battalion of troops from this state, to be sent to reinforce the army in Canada. Said requisition was received by the legislature of this state June 14, and in the afternoon of that day, in committee of the whole, the following resolution was passed: "That there be forthwith raised and equipped in this Colony a Regiment of seven hundred and fifty men including officers.—and that each non-commissioned officer and soldier receive a bounty of Six Pounds." In House of Rep., June 20, Colonel Isaac Wyman, of Keene, was appointed to take command of this regiment, and on the 22d the same body voted that the place of rendezvous be at "Haverhill on Connecticut River." The field and staff officers were as follows:

Colonel, Isaac Wyman, Keene.
Lt Col., Joseph Senter, Moultonborough.
Major, Stephen Peabody, Amherst.
Surgeon, Calvin Frink, Swanzey.
Adjutant, Isaac Temple, Alstead.
Quarter-master, William Russell.
Paymaster, Noah Emery, Exeter.

The following are the rolls of the companies.]

COLONEL JOSHUA WINGATE'S REGIMENT, 1776.

[The retreat of our army from Canada caused considerable alarm on the frontier, and, a larger reinforcement seeming to be needed to check the advance of the enemy, the council and house met in committee of the whole on the second day of July, and voted to raise another regiment of 750 men for that purpose. The number to be raised from each militia regiment was apportioned on the next day, and on the fourth of July Colonel Joshua Wingate, of Stratham, was appointed to take the command. Samuel Connor was appointed lieutenant colonel, and Moses Baker major. July 17 the committee of safety directed Col. Wingate to "repair to Charles Town on Connecticut River," and take charge of such companies as he might find there, and proceed to join the northern army wherever it might be found.

The field and staff officers were as follows:

Field and Staff.

Colonel, Joshua Wingate, Stratham.
Lt. Col., Samuel Connor, Pembroke.
Major, Moses Baker, Campton.
Surgeon, Samuel Wigglesworth, Durham.
Adjutant, James Underwood, Litchfield.
Chaplain, Rev. Nathaniel Porter, New Durham.
Paymaster, Joseph Bass, Portsmouth.
Quartermaster, Timothy White.
Surgeon's Mate, Samuel Moore.

The following are the rolls of the companies:—Ed.]

There is Eight wanting of the Number Required which are from Leavitts town two from Tamworth two from Middletown three from Sandbornton one

The Reasons are as follows (viz)

Leavitts town having no officers nor selectmen nor Committee of safety I applyed to Thos Parsons Esq who said that they were so Exposed being the frontier town that he thought it would not be safe to spare any men out of that town, and Did not think he could possibly Raise any

The Capt of Tamworth writes to me that the state of their town, is that they have fourteen men now in the service and but twelve men at home fit for Duty but with Great Difficulty he had obtained one man who appeared on muster Day but on hearing his Complaint and the Captains Letter by advice of Dea^{c} Knowles the muster master I released him.

The Select men of Middletown were Desired to Raise five men that being their proportion, and they made Return that there were so many of their men now in the service that they had Done all in their power and could Raise but three and on muster Day one of the Select men came with two of the men and said that the third was taken sick and Like to Remain so there was but two mustered

The Capt of Sandbornton says that they have twenty six men now in the service but notwithstanding he Raised the men sent for but Co^{ll} Walker the muster master put by one by Reason he was so small and the Capt prays he may be Excused from Raising another to supply his place by Reason it would be attended with so much Difficulty

Co^{ll} Evans Taxed me Publickly at Concord for obtaining an order for my men to march, by misrepresenting the Number of my Company but if I Did it was what was Impossible for any one to avoid for if I Remember I wrote that my Company would Consist of Between fifty and sixty men, and at that time I had Return of five men from Wakefield five from New Durham, one from middletown, and one from Tamworth, that they would appear on muster Day but afterwards ten of them Enlisted with Capt Drew and one proved sick and one I Released which no man Could foresee, which twelve men added to forty four now Gone would make fifty six which would I think agree very near what I wrote, Notwithstanding all Coll Evans parade about the superourity of his Regiment and of the ancient town of Dover when we met at Concord it was in the power of my men to have Chosen Every officer but when the Capt was Chose I spoke to my men and Desired that they would Consent that Coll Evans men should Nominate the two Lieutenants which they Unanimously agreed to had Coll Evans^{s} men been more in Numbers than mine I believe it is the opinion of the Gentlemen spectators that he would not have advised as I Did, I would not have been so troublesome but as my Character Laboured I thought it necessary to sett the matter Clear I am your Honours most ob^{t} Hum^{bl} ser^{t}

Joseph Badger

To the Honourable the Committee of safety for the Colony of New hampshire

COLONEL PIERSE LONG'S REGIMENT, 1776.

[In committee of safety, August 7, 1776, "The Committee taking into consideration the necessity of completing the Battalion now at Portsm° in order to make them Continental Troops, gave the following Captains orders to compleat their companies, Viz: Caleb Hodgdon, Ebenezer Dearing, Timothy Clements, John Calfe, Nathan Brown, now down there; Mark Wiggin, John Brewster, & Peter Coffin to raise companies." This action was taken in consequence, also, of the prospect of an attack on the forts by the enemy from the seaward. The five companies mentioned above were filled up, three new companies enlisted, and on the twenty-fifth of September Colonel Long was ordered to take command of them. They were called "Matross Companies," and were organized into a battalion on the continental basis, and stationed for the defence of Piscataqua Harbor until November 23, when they were ordered by General Ward to reinforce the army at Ticonderoga, and marched for that post in February following.

COLONEL THOMAS TASH'S REGIMENT, 1776.

[A special convention of the council and assembly was held September 14, 1776, to consider the matter of raising more men to reinforce the army in New York, at which it was "Voted, That there be raised in this state one thousand men officers included, to reinforce the army of the United States of America at New York, to be divided into two Regiments, eight Companies to a Regiment, to be in the service until the first of December next unless sooner discharged." September 17, Thomas Tash, of Durham, an old French War officer, was appointed to the command of the first regiment, the field and staff officers of which were as follows:

Colonel, Thomas Tash, Durham.
Lt. Col., Joseph Welch, Plaistow.
Major, William Gregg, Londonderry.
Surgeon, John Cook.
Adjutant, Joseph Smith.
Q. Master, Jonathan Chesley, Barnstead.

The following are the rolls of the several companies.—Ed.]

COLONEL NAHUM BALDWIN'S REGIMENT, 1776.

[This regiment was raised in accordance with a vote of a special joint convention of the Council and Assembly, held September 14, 1776, for the purpose of reinforcing the army in New York. On September 17 the Assembly appointed Nahum Baldwin colonel, Gordon Hutchins lieutenant colonel, and Nathaniel S. Prentice major. Prentice did not serve. Colonel Baldwin was of Amherst, Colonel Hutchins of Concord. The regiment was in the battle at White Plains Oct. 28, 1776, and was dismissed early in December of that year.

The officers were,—Colonel, Nahum Baldwin, Amherst; Lieutenant Colonel, Gordon Hutchins, Concord. Who the field officers were does not appear.—ED.]

COLONEL DAVID GILMAN'S REGIMENT, 1776.

[In answer to a requisition from General Washington, the legislature, on the fourth day of December, 1776, "Voted, That five hundred men be Draughted from the several Regiments in this State as soon as possible, and officered & sent to New York." On the day following, the legislature appointed the field officers as given below. The cause of this call was, that the terms of service of the troops in garrison at Fort George and Ticonderoga would expire on the last day of December, and if their places were not filled those posts would fall into the hands of General Sir Guy Carleton.

FIELD AND STAFF.

Colonel, David Gilman, Pembroke.
Lt. Col., Thomas Bartlett, Nottingham.
Major, Peter Coffin, Exeter.
Surgeon, Joseph Barnes, Litchfield.
Adjutant, ——— Thurber.
Quarter-Master, Samuel Brooks, Jr., Exeter?

Adjutant Thurber was probably Benjamin Thurber, of Saville, now Sunapee.—ED.]

[2-284] [Petition from some of the Sufferers by the Surrender at the Cedars, May 19, 1776.]

To the Honourable the Council and house of Representatives to be conven'd at Exeter, in New Hampshire on the 10th day of March 1779.

The Humble Petition and Remonstrance of the Company Commanded by Capt Daniel Wilkins, in Col^{o} Beedels Reg^{t} in Canada humbly sheweth that on ye 19th of May 1776, we unhappily fell into the hands of our unnatural and savage Enemy at the Cedars in Canada, when Major Butterfield our commanding officer Capitulated with Capt Foster of the British army to the great grief and surprise of said Company, on the following terms (viz) that we surrendered ourselves as prisoners of war and was to deliver up our arms which accordingly we did, and we was to have our packs and Baggage—and Capt Foster Engaged not to suffer the savages to plunder or abuse us, nor suffer the British troops so to do. But contrary to the Rules of War, they inhumanly without regard to their promise, suffered the savages to rob and plunder us of our packs and baggage, and strip us of our clothes off our backs and left us entirely naked. in this deplorable situation we were left in an enemies Country without money clothing or friends that could contribute to our relief—Therefore your humble petitioners humbly pray that your honours would take the matter under your serious consideration and grant to each person a sum something adiquate to the loss he sustained, and your Petitioners will gratefully acknowledge the favour, and as in duty bound shall ever pray.

[The fort called the "Cedars" was about forty-five miles southwest of Montreal. It was occupied by a portion of Col. Bedel's regiment, and an attack upon it being threatened, Col. Bedel went to Montreal for reinforcements, leaving the fort under the command of Major Isaac Butterfield, who, on the 19th day of May, surrendered his force, of about 400 men, to the British and Indians, about 500 in number, under the command of Capt. George Forster. After the surrender the prisoners were treated in an inhuman and barbarous manner, stripped nearly naked, and some were murdered. A reinforcement of 100 men, under Major Sherburne, was captured by the enemy, after a desperate fight, on the day following, and received the same treatment. These prisoners were transported to an island in a lake near the "Two Mountains," and kept there nearly naked, without shelter, and with scant rations, for eight days, when they were released on a cartel agreed to between Gen. Arnold and Capt. Forster. (Am. Archives.)—ED.]

[2–284 C] [Recommendations for Field Officers, June, 1776.]

Colony of New Hampshire } To the Hon^{able} Assembly of the Colony aforesaid, Now Convened at Exeter

The Petition of the Subscribers, Officers of a Regiment Lately Raised by your Honours—Humbly Shews.

That your Petitioners are informed that a Battalion is to be Raised by order of the Continental Congress, for the Defence of this Colony; and at the Same time are Sorry to Say that we are Excluded from ye Priviledges of Being Enroll^{d} therein. With all Deference to your Honours Judgment we are Constrained to Say, we are of Opinion, that the Number of men Included in that Regiment Appear to us to be quite Sufficient, to be fixed at our Sea Coast. as a Large body of Militia are nearly Scituated and in Readiness to come in at the Least notice. We would not have your honour Attribute the cause of our Petitioning to a Jealousy that we are to be discharg^{d} when that Battalion is Raised. But to the want of a proper Regard being paid to the troops already down here. Should we be kept up till the time of our Engagements are Expired, we should then take it Exceedingly hard that troops that have had no share in the Labour, Should be Established and we Sent home—Your Honours must Realize, that though we are Soldiers yet we are not void of thought; which points out to our views the present Appointment in so discouraging a light. We would not wish to Dictate but humbly to pray, that that vote Respecting ye appointment of the field Officers of that Battalion may be Reconsidered, and that Coln^{l} David Gilman Esqr be fixed in the chief Command. And at the Same time, are not unmindful of the Merits of Herculus Mooney Esqr who we look on to be Capable of a higher Station than he now Ranks in. we do not wish to perplex your Honours with many petitions, but are Oblig^{d} to forward this in order to allay the Uneasiness that now Subsists through our Small camps. And Should your Honours Grant this our prayer we are Certain that no Officers can give Better Satisfaction, than those we have named. And your Petitioners as in Duty Bound Shall Ever pray

[2-284 D] [Soldiers' Petition, 1776.]

To the Honor^{ble} the Council and House of Assembly of the State of New Hampshire

Humbly Sheweth,

That your Petitioners were Enlisted Soldiers in the Provincial Service, and Stationed at Fort Sullivan under Command of Cap^{n} Eliphalet Daniels; that the time of Enlistment being nearly expired it being December 17th 1776 Your Petitioners thinking to do greater Service to the United States, enlisted into the Continental Service having then a Month's Wages due—Your Petitioners being now returned Home, having Served a Campaign, apply'd to Cap^{n} Daniels for Wages due, who declining to comply with their request, the Subscribers submit their Case to your Honors Consideration praying that they may receive what they think is justly due to them.

And as in Duty bound will ever pray

[The preceding rolls show that the state of New Hampshire performed her share of the work of 1776 in full, as she had the year before, responding ably and patriotically to every call made upon her for men. In several instances her troops remained in the service beyond their terms of enlistment, notwithstanding they were of necessity scantily fed and clothed, and poorly provided with protection against the inclemency of the weather. In no instance, when the exigency of the occasion seemed to require their services beyond their terms of enlistment, were they appealed to in vain. The state had three regiments in the regular or continental army under General Washington, viz., Stark's, Poor's, and Reed's; a regiment in the Canada service under Col. Timothy Bedel; Col. Pierse Long's regiment, which was stationed for the defence of Piscataqua harbor until it marched to reënforce the garrison at Ticonderoga in February, 1777; and in addition furnished five regiments of militia as reënforcements, viz., Wyman's and Wingate's in July and August, Tash's and Baldwin's in September, and Gilman's in December.

New Hampshire troops participated in the battles at Trenton, and Princeton, and honored themselves and the state by their bravery and good conduct. At Trenton the regiment under Stark led one of the attacking columns which was commanded by General Sullivan. Colonel James Reed, of Fitzwilliam, commander of the Third N. H. regiment in the continental service, became blind as a result of severe sickness, contracted while in line of duty at Fort George, about the first of September, 1776, and was consequently obliged to retire from active service. He had been a brave and efficient officer, and the loss of his sight was a severe one to him and the cause. The continental congress elected him to be a brigadier-general, August 9, 1776, and on the same day elected John Sullivan to be a major-general. General Reed's commission was forwarded to him by the president of congress the following day, under cover of the following letter:

"Philadelphia August 10, 1776.

"Sir: The Congress having yesterday been pleased to promote you to the rank of brigadier-general in the army of the American states I do myself the pleasure to enclose your commission and wish you happy.

I am sir, your most obedient and very humble servant

John Hancock, President

To Brigadier-General James Reed."

The next following are pay-rolls of the companies in Colonel Pierse Long's regiment, stationed at New Castle, as paid before their march to Ticonderoga.—Ed.]

[COLONEL DAVID GILMAN'S REGIMENT.

FINAL PAY-ROLLS.]

[This regiment was enlisted in December, 1776, and remained in the service beyond the time for which the men were engaged, at the earnest request of General Sullivan. It participated in the battles of Trenton and Princeton, and did excellent service in both. At the battle on the 26th of December, which resulted in the capture of the Hessians at Trenton, New Jersey, this regiment was a portion of the right division, which was under the command of Major-General John Sullivan. The conduct of the New Hampshire and other New England troops on that occasion, and at Princeton on January 3, 1777, is set forth in the following extract from a letter from General Sullivan to Hon. Meshech Weare, dated Chatham, February 13, 1777:—Ed.]

"I have been so full of Business that I could not find time to write; but still I have a more weighty reason, which is, That I cannot give an account of a victory or defeat where I was an actor without saying something for or against myself; & I have a great aversion to writing against myself & to write in favor would be evidence of a very suspicious kind. Indeed, I always had an aversion to fighting upon paper; for I have never yet found a man well versed in that kind of fighting, that would practice any other. Perhaps you may want to know how your men (the Yankees) fight: I tell you exceeding well when they have proper officers. I have been much pleased to see a day approaching to try the difference between Yankee cowardice & southern valour. The Day has or rather the days have arrived, and all the General Officers allowed & do allow that the Yankees cowardice assumes the shape of true valor in the field; and the Southern valor appears to be a composition of boasting & conceit. General Washington made no scruple to say publicly the remains of the Eastern Regiments were the strength of his army, though then their numbers were comparatively speaking but small; he calls them in front when the Enemy are there; he sends them to the rear when the Enemy threatens that way; all the general officers allow them to be the best of Troops. The Southern officers and soldiers allow it in times of danger, but not all other times. Believe me, Sir, the Yankees took Trentown before the other Troops knew anything of the matter more than that there was an engagement, and what will still surprise you more, the line that attacked the Town consisted of eight hundred Yankees & there was 1600 Hessians to oppose them. At Princetown, when the 17th Regt. had thrown 3500 southern militia into the utmost confusion, a Regiment of Yankees restored the day. This General Mifflen confessed to me ;—though the Philadelphia papers tell us a different story. It seems to have been quite forgot, that while the 17th Regt was engaging those Troops that 600 Yankees had the Town to take agst the 40th & 55th Regts which they did without loss owing to the manner of attack ; but enough of this ; I don't wish to reflect ;—but beg leave to assure you that Newspapers & even Letters don't always speak the truth. You may venture to assure your friends that no men fight better or write worse than the Yankees, of which this Letter will be good evidence. Dear Sir I am with much esteem, your most obedt servt

Jno Sullivan

"Honble Meshech Weare, Esq."

John Haven

State of New Hampshire

Feby 19th 1777 Rec^{d} an Order on the receiver Genl for Twenty six pounds Nineteen shillings and four pence on Acc^{t} of the Above Roll

John Haven Capt

[Early in the year 1777 the legislature and committee of safety of this state took effectual means to recruit and reorganize the three continental regiments. Orders for the enlistment of men were sent to officers in service in the regiments, and to the colonels of the several militia regiments in the state. Stark resigned the command of the First regiment; Poor of the Second and Reed of the Third were promoted to be brigadier-generals; and many changes were made in the line officers in consequence of resignations, deaths, sickness, etc., although most of those who were in health remained in the field, and a large portion of the men reënlisted for three years, or during the war. As reorganized in April, Stark's old regiment retained its rank the as First N. H. Regiment, Reed's became the Second, and Poor's the Third, commanded respectively by Joseph Cilley of Nottingham, Nathan Hale of Rindge, and Alexander Scammell of Durham. The following is a roster of the officers :—ED.]

[FIRST NEW HAMPSHIRE CONTINENTAL REGIMENT, 1777.]

[After Stark's resignation, Colonel Joseph Cilley, of Nottingham, was appointed to the command of this regiment, which was recruited and organized in April, and, with the Second and Third New Hampshire, was assigned to a brigade commanded by General Sullivan, with head-quarters at Ticonderoga. The mileage in the following rolls was from their homes to Charlestown, N. H. The field and staff officers were as follows:

Colonel, Joseph Cilley, Nottingham.
Lieut. Col., George Reid, Londonderry.
Major, Jeremiah Gilman, Plaistow.
Adjutant, Caleb Stark, Derryfield.
Quarter-master, Patrick Cogan, Durham.
Paymaster, Benjamin Kimball, Plaistow.
Surgeon, John Hale, Hollis.
Surgeon's Mate, Jonathan Poole, Hollis.
Chaplain, Samuel Cotton, Litchfield.

These regiments remained at Ticonderoga until the approach of the British force under General John Burgoyne in July.—Ed.]

[THIRD NEW HAMPSHIRE CONTINENTAL REGIMENT.]

[The field and staff officers of this regiment, as organized in April 1777, were as follows:

Colonel, Alexander Scammell, Durham.
Lieut. Colonel, Andrew Coburn, Marlborough.
Major, Henry Dearborn, Nottingham.
Adjutant, Nicholas Gilman, Exeter.
Quartermaster, James Blanchard, Dunstable.
Paymaster, William Weeks, Jr., Greenland.
Surgeon, Ivory Hovey, Berwick, Me.
Chaplain, Nathaniel Porter, Durham.

Colonel Scammell was appointed adjutant-general of the continental army in 1780, and held that position until September 30 of that year, when, being officer of the day at Yorktown, he was taken prisoner while reconnoitering the position of the enemy, and afterward barbarously wounded by them, from the effect of which he died October 6, 1781, at Williamsburg, Va., aged 33 years. Lieut. Col. Coburn was killed in the battle at Stillwater September 19, 1777. —Ed.]

[3-143] [Captain Daniels's Co. Petition.]

State of New Hampshire } To the Honble the General Assembly of the State aforesaid, now sitting at Exeter in said State per Adjournment this fourth Day of June A D 1777—

Humbly Sheweth the Company of Matrosses, under The Command of Captain Eliphalet Daniels, now stationed at Fort Sullivan, that they have been most of them inlisted into the Service of the State near a twelvemonth last past: that they have chearfully performed their Duty in their several Stations thus far, That at the Time of their Inlistment, they had the Word of their Captain, that their shoud be a just & equitable Advancement of their Wages, in Proportion to the Rise of the necessary Articles of Life, or have those Articles allow'd to them at the Rate they went at when they inlisted, for which he had the Assurances of the General Court, but your Petitioners, unhappyly for themselves and Families, find their monthly Wages still fixed at the Rate of, Forty one Shillings per month notwithstanding the Rise of every Article necessary for a comfortable Subsistence, is now nearly double, to what they were at the Time of their ingaging in the Service, which in Effect causes a Reduction of their Wages to one half of its nomenal Value; So far have the regulating Acts of this State been, from answering the intended & desired Effect, that the Soldirey are in a worse situation, now, than before, from some people's wholly refusing to sell their Comodities, & from the extortinous Spirit of others in not regarding the Laws; Your Petitioners feel a great Concernment in their Minds, especially those that have Familes to support, when they look forward & view themselves as destin'd for the Fate of War, and when they look back upon their Families, & see them also exposed to the pinching hand of Poverty; From these Principles alone, & not from any mutinous Temper or disafection. They humbly ask Relief.

Wherefore your Petitioners pray the Honble Assembly of this State, that they will in their Wisdom & Goodness, either advance the Wages of the Soldery in their Service, or make some Provision that their Families may be supported with the necessary Articles of Life at as reasonable a Rate, as they were when your Petitioners inlisted into the Service, which they deem an Honour to be ingaged in.

And as in Duty bound we'll ever Pray

DIARIES OF LIEUT. JONATHAN BURTON, OF WILTON, N. H.

The originals of these diaries are the property of George S. Burton, Esq., of Boston, a descendant of the author, and are published with his permission, in the belief that all reliable matter which gives any light upon Revolutionary war movements ought to be placed in permanent form. Lieut. Jonathan Burton was born at Middleton, Mass., September 18, 1741. He married Hulda Nichols, of that town, February 29, 1764, by whom he had nine children. He served through the Revolutionary war from Wilton, and subsequently held prominent positions, both military and civil; was appointed captain June 19, 1786, by President John Sullivan, and brigade major August 5, 1793, by Governor Bartlett. He was a member of the board of selectmen of Wilton sixteen years, represented the town several times in the general court, and there died April 30, 1811, in the seventieth year of his age.

The Majors of Brigade will for the future be answerable for any Neglect in Executing this Order—To Reward and Encourage Melitary Merrits—

The Congress thought proper to Incress the Pay of Captains and Subbalterns of the Continental armey and as uniformity and Decency in Dress are essentillary Necessary in the appearance and Regularity of an Army His Excellency Recommends it earnestly to the officers to get themselves in a Uniform Dress. The field officers of each new corps will Set the Example by clothing themselves in a Regimental of their respective corps and it is not Douted but the Captains and Subalterns will Immedetly follow their Example—

The General by no means Recomends or Desires Officers to Run into Costly or Expencive Regimentals, no matter how plain or coarse so that they are but uniform in their color cut and fashion. The officers belonging to those Regiments whose uniforms is not yet fixt upon had better Delay making their Regimentals till they are—

This Day Giving commencement to the New army which in Every Points is Contenental The Genl Flatters Himselfe that a Laudable Sperit of Immulation will now take Place and Prevale the whole of it without such a Sperit few officers have ever arived to any Degree of Reputation Nor did any Army Ever become formidable His Excellency hopes that the Impotance of the Greate cause which we are Engaged in will be Deeply Impressed upon Every Mans Mind and wishes it to be considered that an Army without order Regularity and Desipline is no Better than a commisond Mobb, Let us therefore when Every thing Dear and Vaulable to free men is at Stake when our unnatural Parent is thretning us with Destruction from Every Q^{r} Endeavour by all the Skill and Desipline in our Power to acquire that Knowledge and conduct that is Necessary in War, Our Men are brave and good Men who with Pleasure it is observed are adicted to fewer Vices than are commonly found in Armies but it is Subordination and Desipling the Life and Soule of an Army which next under Providence is to make us formidable to our Enimies Honorable in our Selves and Respected in the World and herein it is to be Shewn the Goodness of the officers, In vane it is for a Genl to Isue orders if orders are not attended too, Equaly vane it is for a few officers to Exert themselves if the Same Sperit does not animate the whole, It is therefore Expected that Each Brigedier will be attentive to the Desepline of his Brigade to the Exercise and the Conduct Served in it, calling the Col^{ns} and field officers of the Rig^{ts} to a Sevear account for Neglect or Disobedince of orders, the Same attention to be Paid by Field officers to the Respective companies of their Rig^{ts} by the Cap^{ts} to their Subal^{tr} and So on and that the Plea of Ignorance which is no cause for the Neglect of orders (But Rather an agravation) may not be ofred, it is ordred and Desired that not only Every Rig^{t} but that every company have an orderly Book to which frequant Resource is to be had it being Expected that all the Standing orders which are Necessary to be communicated to the men be Read and carefuly Explaned to them as it is the first wish of the Genl to have the Busness of the Army conducted without Punishment to accomplish which he assures Every officer and Solder that as far as it is in his power he will Reward as Particularly Distinguish themselves, at the Same time Declares he will Punish Every Kind of Neglect or Misbehaviour in an Examplary Maner as the Great varitiey of occurincies and the Multiplicity of Busness in which he is Necessarily Engaged may withdraw his attention from many Objects and things which might be Improved to advantage, He takes this opertunity of Declareing that he will thanke any officer of what soever Rank for any usefull hints or Posible Information but to avoid Trivial Matters as his time is very much Engrossed he Requires that it may be Introduced through the Chanel of a Genl officer who is to weigh the Importance before he communicate it, all Standing heretofore Isued for the Goverment of the Army of which Every Rig^{t} has or ought to have copies are to be Strictly complyed with untill or countermanded, Every Rig^{t} Now upon the New Establishment is to give in Signed by the Col^{o} or commanding officer an Exact List of the commisiond officers in order that they may Receive commisions, Particular care is to be taken that no Person is Included as an officer but Such as have Ben appointed by proper Authority any attempt of that Kind will bring Sevear Punishment upon the Author, the Genl will if any vacancies happen Receive Recomdation and give them Proper Consideration but the Congress alone is coputent to the appointment, an Exact Return of the Strength of Each Rig^{t} is to be given as Soon as Posable Distinguishing the Number of Melitia and Such of the old as do Joyn for a month only of the Established men of the Rig^{t} This Day being the commencement of the new Establishment the Genl Pardons all the officers of the old and commands all Prisoners (Except of War) to be Relased Immeadatly—the Continental Rules and articles as Lately ammended for the better Government of the Troops of the Thirteen United Colonies are now to take Place all Trials therefore are to be under these Articles and in compliance with the first all officers are to subscribe to them, Each Col° or commanding officer of a Rigm^nt or corps is to apply to the adj^t General for a Set for each company and one for himselfe, and officers to Subscribe, which Last is to be Returned in. When the commisions are given out these articles are to be Read to the men by an officer of a company at least once a month, this to be considered as a Standing order, the commisary of Stores is Immedately to make a Genl return of the Stores under his care here and at Roxbery, in doing which he is to be very exact an Exact acccount of the arms is wanted without Delay It was with no Small Degree of Surprise that the Genl Yesterday saw after the Repeated orders that have been Issued for having the Tents So Soon as the Barraks were fit to enter, Returned to the Q^r Master Genl Several of them Standing uninhabited and in a Disgraceful and Ruinous Situation and more over hears that others Serve only for Beading, the officers Who have Suffered this Neglect will please to be Informed that this is the Last adminition that will be given on this head, It is Expected that the commanding officers of Rig^{nt} will be exceedingly attentive to the Training Exercising and Diseplining their men, and Bringing them acquainted as Soon as Posable with the different Evolutions and Manovers Nesessary to be Practised as nothing Reflects more Disgrace upon an officer or is more Pernisous and Dangerous in it Selfe than Suffering arms to be in bad order, The Genl assures the officers and men that he will Never overlook or Pardon a neglect of this Kind, there are many Practices in Regular Service highly worthy of Immitation but non more essential than this and Keeping Soldiers clean and neat, the first is Absolutely Nessary for Self Presavation, the other for health and apperance for if a Solder cannot be Induc^{t} to take Pride in his Person he Soon Becomes a Sloven and Indifferent to every thing else whilst we have men therefore who in Every Respect are Superior to Merserny Troops that are Fighting for Two or three Pence a Day onely why cannot we in apperance be Equal to them when we fight for Life Liberty Property and our country—
